

CORIOLANUS HERO WITHOUT A COUNTRY

Coriolanus is a famous Roman soldier of fortune. He fights the Volscians of Tullio Aufidio but instead of praising him his people accuse him of betrayal. Coriolanus feels offended and goes to Rome to join with the Volscians. He goes back and is about to start a massacre but is stopped by his mother who begs him to save his country.

HISTORICAL

VERSIONS	EN, IT
DIRECTORS	Giorgio Ferroni
CAST	Gordon Scott Alberto Lupo Aldo Bufi Landi Lilla Brignone
DISTRIBUTION	Variety Distribution Srl
PHOTOGRAPY	Color
YEAR	1964
AREA	Abroad