

IF I WERE A MEMBER OF PARLIAMENT

A young dare-devil goes to Rome in search of fortune, with the blessings and money of his loving aunts. While in the city, he is a victim of a series of mishaps. His aunts hear about a man of the same name who is a candidate for Parliament; they think that he is their nephew and organize a series of celebrations. So, the youngster gets the idea of trying to replace the real candidate, but gets found out. The aunts forgive him.

COMEDY

VERSIONS	IT
DIRECTORS	Giorgio Simonelli
CAST	Nino Taranto Giuseppe Spataro Marisa Merlini
DISTRIBUTION	Variety Distribution Srl
PHOTOGRAPY	B/W
YEAR	1949
AREA	Abroad